

Kinder.

Growing  Bigger Hearts™

Qamar & the beautiful lantern

It was a special day as Qamar's mom was preparing a lovely meal for all their friends and close relatives to celebrate the last Iftar.

Qamar and Rami were playing with a ball outside when Qamar saw new people moving into the neighborhood.

A beautiful family, just like Qamar's, with two little kids and their parents.

The dad carried the table inside, the mom held a green plant, and the little kids walked with their toys.

Rami and Qamar approached them to ask if they needed any help, the dad thanked them while carrying a wonderful lantern that amazed Qamar.

She then thought, how about inviting them over for Iftar? But she hesitated as the dinner was being prepared for their friends and close relatives only.

An illustration of a woman in a purple headscarf and teal dress cooking in a brick oven. She is talking to a young girl with a yellow bow. The scene is set in a rustic, outdoor kitchen area with a brick oven, a window, and a doorway leading to a green landscape with a palm tree and a building.

She ran to her mother to tell her about their new neighbors and asked if they could invite them for Iftar and welcome them properly as they were definitely tired.

Qamar's mom gave it some thought, then happily agreed!

So Qamar and Rami went over to their new neighbors and invited them over for Iftar.

It was dinner time and the neighbors knocked on the door. Qamar opened and was surprised to see a beautiful gift from the family'the beautiful lantern she liked so much as a thank you for the invitation!

Everyone sat together to have dinner and get to know each other.

At that moment, the lantern spread a shining light into the garden, filling it with beautiful colors thanks to Qamar and her family's hospitality!

The End

Kinder.®