Growing  Bigger Hearts™

Qamar & Lulu the cat

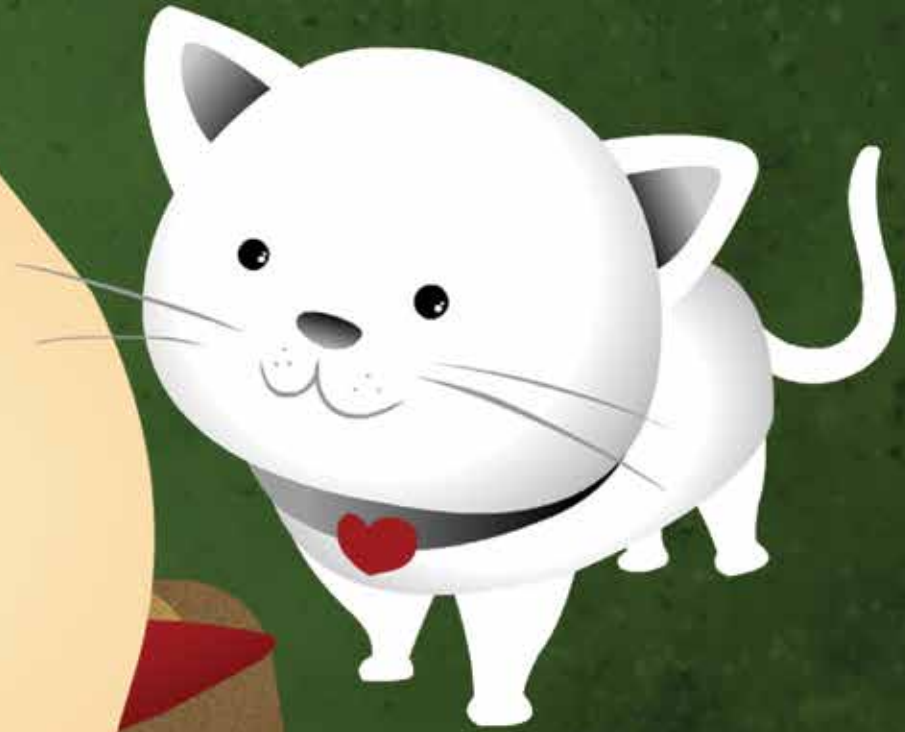

Qamar and Rami were happy as they helped their mom get fruits and vegetables at the market today.

Qamar was holding apples and Rami was buying strawberries.

Rami heard a soft purr from the ground...it was a small kitten getting closer to play!

"Qamar, look at this white kitten!"
Qamar looked at the cat, and the two kids started playing with it and gave it milk.

When Qamar's mom called them to leave, the little girl notices that the cat had a heart-shaped charm on its collar...

"It's lost! Her owner must be sad!"
Everyone wondered what to do.
Qamar stayed with the cat, while her mother and Rami wandered around the market asking if anyone had lost their cat... but no luck.

The little kitten kept purring, and finally the news reached its owner. It was a little girl who couldn't believe her eyes when she saw her cat with Qamar.

She ran towards them and hugged her pet. "Thank you so much for taking care of my pet!" The little girl thanked them all as her mother gave them the heart-shaped charm on the cat's collar as a gift.

They were very happy with the gift!
Then the heart started shining and paving away in the market, leading Qamar, Rami and their mother to a small kitten waiting to be taken to a loving home.

The End
